A close-knit, friendly school with, says a parent, 'exceptionally well-adjusted and kind children. In this age, and by comparison with some other schools, that's a considerable feat.' It's non-selective and there's no whiff of hothousing, but the scholarship haul is impressive: leavers move on to Radley, Marlborough, the Sherbornes, St Mary's Ascot and Calne. They've opened a fab new music school with a recording studio and recital hall, and a new all-weather Astro to boot. The U13 netball girls were runners-up at the IAPS national championships, and the U12 rugby team has been unbeaten in 45 matches over four years. By Year 8, pretty much everyone weekly-boards; lower down the school, there's a flexi option. Pastoral care is, trumpets a mother, 'ABSOLUTELY OUTSTANDING'. All credit to 'inspirational' head Father Simon Everson.
