

PRIVACY POLICY

We are committed to respecting your online privacy and recognise your need for appropriate protection and management of any personally identifiable information (“Personal Information”) you share with us.

Personal Information means any information that may be used to identify an individual, including, but not limited to, a first and last name, a home or other physical address, an e-mail address or other contact information, whether at work or at home. In general, you can visit our web pages without telling us who you are or revealing any Personal Information about yourself.

We strive to comply with all applicable laws designed to protect your privacy. Although legal requirements may vary from country to country, we intend to adhere to the principles set forth in this Online Privacy Policy even if, in connection with the above, we transfer your Personal Information from your country to countries that may not require an “adequate” level of protection for your Personal Information. In other words, our goal is to provide protection for your Personal Information no matter where that Personal Information is collected, transferred or retained.

Cookies and other Tracking Technologies.

Some of our web pages use “cookies” and other tracking technologies. A “cookie” is a small text file that may be used, for example, to collect information about web site activity. Some cookies and other technologies may serve to recall Personal Information previously indicated by a web user. Most browsers allow you to control cookies, including whether or not to accept them and how to remove them.

You may set most browsers to notify you if you receive a cookie or you may choose to block cookies with your browser, but please note that if you choose to erase or block your cookies, you will need to re-enter your original user ID and password to gain access to certain parts of the web site.

Tracking technologies may record information such as Internet domain and host names; Internet protocol (IP) addresses; browser software and operating system types; clickstream patterns; and dates and times that our site is accessed. Our use of cookies and other tracking technologies allows us to improve our web site and your web experience. We may also analyse information that does not contain Personal Information for trends and statistics.

To protect your privacy, we have adopted the following principles:

You may choose whether or not to provide Personal Information to us. If you do, we intend to take reasonable and appropriate steps to protect the Personal Information that you share with us from unauthorised access or disclosure. We do not intend to transfer it without your

If you choose to have a relationship with Farleigh School, such as a contractual or other business relationship or partnership, we will naturally continue to contact you in connection with that business relationship.

If you have any comments or questions regarding our Online Privacy Policy, please contact us at office@farleighschool.com.

YOUR CONSENT

By using this web site, you consent to the terms of our Online Privacy Policy and to Farleigh School processing your Personal Information as detailed above.

For control of our business, our website logs IP addresses, which is the automatic number assigned to your computer when you surf the web. The IP address allows us to anonymously track visitors' usage on our website. Your IP address is not connected to any personally identifiable or on-line contact information like a name and address, so you remain anonymous at all times.
